The Improvathon is an annual comedy showcase and competitive theater event for CYT students. Teams from all over the country get together each summer at the CYT EXPO to take part in the IMPROVATHON competition.

It’s a hilarious way for students to showcase their talents, think quickly, and step out of their comfort zones.

Wanna participate?

First you must be on the CYT Baton Rouge Improv Team.

Donna Iverstine coaches our Improv Team. The team has 4 - 6 players, ages 13 - 18. Teams play various games from the Improvathon Playbook and are judged, based on pre-determined criteria, to see who gets to take home the coveted Improvathon trophy. Throughout the competition, teams are given feedback so that they can continue to grow and learn as Improv Players!

What’s required?

You must be 13 – 18 years old

You must have taken an Intermediate Improv class before auditions.

You must audition for the team.

If chosen for the team…

You must be able to take a Winter and Spring CYT Improv Team class (this is where you’ll rehearse as a team).

You must be available for additional rehearsals held in June before EXPO begins.

You must be able to participate in the 2019 EXPO in San Diego, CA in June, 2019.

You must be able to participate in fundraisers for EXPO, including Improv Night on June 8, 2019.
Cost?
$210 per class registration fee – Winter class and Spring class
$1200 estimated - EXPO cost
$20 – team tshirt

Auditions

*November 1 @ 6pm at (Location TBD)

Auditions are closed.

Dress comfortably and modestly.

There is no way to prepare for Improv. If you’ve taken the required classes, you will know the rules of the games.

Team will announced shortly after auditions.